Dear Partners and Players,

Thank you for your kind support for towards Bushiroad and it has been a pleasure working to deliver quality products and services to you.

Bushiroad deeply appreciates all the effort from our supporters in building the international market for our games over the years. We are dedicated to providing you and the community, the best services we can offer.

In the 3 years since the launch of our English Edition products, we have been striving to keep our operations cost-effective and have been absorbing the rising costs of inflation and production. Regrettably, we have reached a stage where continuing this is no longer possible.

We would like to inform you that from October 1st 2015, price adjustments will be made for the English editions of Cardfight!! Vanguard, Weiss Schwarz and Future Card Buddyfight. Products releasing in October 2015 and restock orders from October 2015 will be affected by the new increased rates.

Bushiroad will continue to strive to develop and provide support to our products and services to best of our abilities.

We are extremely enthusiastic about the exciting upcoming projects that we are embarking later in the year and in 2016. You can expect multiple major titles for the English Edition Weiss Schwarz in the upcoming year. Cardfight!! Online, which was highly demanded by players, will also be available to spread the love and joy of Cardfight!! Vanguard worldwide in 2016. We hope that you will look forward to them in the upcoming year.

Thank you again for your continued patronage. We look forward to serving you today and for many more years to come.

Yours Sincerely,
