ENGLISH EDITION TRADING CARD GAME “LUCK & LOGIC” TO BE DISCONTINUED

Singapore (January 23, 2017) – Bushiroad announced that production for the English edition Trading Card Game, “Luck & Logic”, will cease after its final product, BT05 “Trance Re:union” is released on March 31, 2017.

After the discontinuation, “Luck & Logic” players will still be able to continue participating in monthly shop tournaments with PR card prizes until the end of December 2017. In addition, as part of the Bushiroad Championship Series 2017 lineup, “Luck & Logic” Regional Championships will be held at eight locations worldwide. The champion of each Regional Championship will receive a fully sponsored invitation to compete in the 2018 World Finals in Japan.

Some changes will also take place in the Japanese edition “Luck & Logic” scene, with a new rule denoting that English edition cards for the trading card game can be used in Japanese edition tournaments held outside of Japan. This will apply to all players worldwide and commence from February 1, 2017. Only English edition cards are allowed at English edition tournaments.

For fans of the accompanying animation series of the same name, “Luck & Logic” has been confirmed for a second season and details about its broadcasting schedule will be available at a later date.
