Evil Governor, Darkface Gredora

Darkface Gredora is an apostle of Gyze and also the queen of disruption.

When you ride or stride this unit, you can seal off calls to one of your opponent's column with just one counter-blast. Not even superior call can be used on that column!! While you are in GB1, you can even turn one of your opponent's damage from face up to face down while you counter-charge one of your damage before your ride phase.

Featured
Cards!!

Clans from the Zoo Nation Evolves!

Ranunculus of Phantasmic Blue, Ahsha

Ahsha returns with a brand new look!

Her first ability allows you to replenish your deck with unit cards, so that you can continue to use various <<Neo Nectar>> unit's ability to superior call. After that, use her second ability to superior call a unit with Bloom ability onto the field.

Don't forget to check out the new <<Neo Nectar>> units in this new expansion to enhance your Ahsha deck!

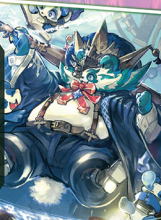

Amazing Professor, Bigbelly

Bigbelly is a great card as a vanguard and also a rear-guard.

As a vanguard, you get to call a unit from hand and give it +4000 power when you ride or stride this unit. This enables you to reach the "Success" value for the units easily.

Regardless of being a vanguard or rear-guard, Bigbelly is able to re-stand a unit and give it a +4000 power boost if it is successful. This ability is a great finisher move without needing to stride!!

NATURE'S WRATH

Trial Deck Vol. 5

Feel the Unstoppable Wrath of Nature!

The fifth trial deck from DragoBorne - Rise to Supremacy - will see the elves working in harmony in order to bring forth a powerful spawn of nature. Feel the power in the form of a beast that deals direct damage to forts and shoves aside all lesser creatures!

Stave off your opponent's attacks and deal direct damage to your opponent's fort to finish them off for good. If that doesn't work, shove aside the defenders to make way for your deadly attacks.

The elves come together in this deck to hasten your opponent's demise.

Elves are quick and light footed alone but when they band together, they have strength that is both beautiful and destructive.

Having trouble breaking through your opponent's defenses? Fear not as the spells in this deck will tear them to shreds.

GEARS OF APOCALYPSE

Booster Pack Vol. 3

*Olous might seem quiet but their machines have started to move!
Is this the beginning of a revolution, or something more sinister...?*

The third Dragoborne booster [Gears of Apocalypse] features cards from all of the five colors, allowing players to build all sorts of decks featuring dragons, angels, elves, demons, goblins, and more.

[Gears of Apocalypse] will allow players to build new decks that draw upon the strong synergy between elves, or the hierarchy of demons and goblins.

Introducing a new Ambush timing!

The current Ambushes are triggered when an opposing creature attacks one of your forts, or when one of your creatures gets destroyed on your opponent's turn.

This new Ambush timing will offer some more options for interaction during your opponent's turn, allowing you to surprise them before they can attack!
