CARDFIGHT!! VANGUARD G
BOOSTER PACK VOL.14

THE END IS APPROACHING! "DRAGON DEITY OF DESTRUCTION, GYZE" DESCENDS!

Featuring the 2-sided card!

NEON GYZE

You will need to play this card as your starting vanguard in order to Ultimate Stride to "Dragon Deity of Destruction, Gyze". After another unit rides Neon Gyze, it will be sent to the G zone, but does not contribute to "Generation Break". While in the G zone, all your power adding effects from trigger checks will be changed to "Bind a Zeroth Dragon from your G zone faced-up".

When you have 5 Zeroth Dragons faced-up in your bind zone, you can flip this card to the other side and Ultimate Stride into "Dragon Deity of Destruction, Gyze" and begin shattering your opponent!!

The path of destruction begins with the harmless looking Neon Gyze!

Front

DRAGON DEITY OF DESTRUCTION, GYZE

When Gyze is being called to the vanguard circle, you can call 5 Zeroth Dragons to your rear-guard circles. Gyze and the Zeroth Dragons cannot be affected by any skill besides your own guardians. The Zeroth Dragons on your rear-guard circles cannot be attacked too.

The most devastating skill is its 3rd skill, which allows you to deal 1 damage for each Zeroth Dragon on your rear-guard circle at the start of your turn. This means your opponent will most likely take 5 damages on the turn after you Ultimate Stride to Gyze.

Are you strong enough to wield this powerful unit?

Gyze is the epitome of destruction and its skill shows it perfectly!

DRAGOBORNE

RISE TO SUPREMACY

Trial Deck Vol. 5

NATURE'S WRATH

With the constant assault on Tir na Nog, the once ever green forests that sheltered this peaceful nation now stands charred and barren. However, nature endures in ways that the simple do not understand. It evolves. Now it has something deadly in store for those who have brought destruction upon it. With the help of the elves, nature's vengeance will be coming and it will be swift and decisive.

Ghis, Unending Fury

A devastating finisher for green decks, Ghis is able to whittle the opponent's barrier count down and permanently deal with opposing defenders - all but guaranteeing your swift victory against anyone unprepared for it. Its first ability is a double-edged sword, so timing is crucial when you're looking to exploit the strength of this beast!

Fearful Sprite

A low-cost defender for elf decks looking for a cheap turn one play, it also doubles as a powerful deterrent against small opposing creatures while Dragocrossed. Blocking multiple times will also let you find more elves for future turns!

Cleanse

Clean and efficient, Cleanse offers players a one-for-one for their opponent's ambushes. While some may prefer having the ability tacked onto a creature instead, Cleanse shines in decks that require a high spell count, like The Researcher decks.

Trial Deck Vol. 5: Nature's Wrath

Episodes
1-3 out now!

The alliance between Tir na Nog and Logres has proved fruitful as the elves from both nations have found ways to set up strong defenses against the chaos and destruction. Little do they know the demons from Nilheim have been experimenting with new destructive magic that comes with a price... a price that isn't too expensive though; just a few lives of goblins... which so happens to be in abundance in Tauris. With the war keeping the 4 nations occupied, Olous has been busy plotting something of their own...

Booster Pack Vol. 3

GEARS OF APOCALYPSE

Chromegear Liberator

An extremely powerful card that allows your other machines to attack again! If your opponent's defenses are all down and you manage to get two copies of this card on the field Dragocrossed with blue dice, you can keep attacking as long as you reveal machines with its ability!

Goblin Darkcaller

A simple but efficient card, any goblin/demon list will definitely want to run a full complement of Goblin Darkcallers to reduce the cost of the demons on the other end of the cost spectrum. Its low cost means you can potentially play this along with a cost 3 demon on the first turn!

Boarding Swashbuckler

A new ambush activation timing that can go off as soon as your opponent summons a creature! Throw a wrench into your opponent's attack plan and force them to play less optimally! Offensively, this card can also be used in conjunction with other removals to ensure you can clear more pressing threats from the field. Because the ability isn't tied to its ambush ability, you can use it more freely than other ambush creatures!

Reinforce Equipment

Cycle through your deck quickly, and reduce the cost of your machines while you're at it! This card also allows you to dump cards into the discard pile, enabling other machine strategies and synergies, such as The End of Tides.

Booster Pack Vol. 3: Gears of Apocalypse

Product Specifications

- ◆ 1 pack contains 8 random cards
- ◆ 1 display contains 20 packs
- ◆ Parallel holo versions of all normal cards will also be randomly inserted!
