Get ready to slay some goblins on the stage of Weiß Schwarz in January 2020!

After much anticipation, Goblin Slayer will join the Weiß Schwarz English line-up, set to release on January 31, 2020. Prior to its release, we will be featuring several cards from both the Trial Deck+ and Booster Pack in this issue and the next.

To start the ball rolling, here are some cards that are fundamental to the top-performing decks for this set, exclusively found in the Trial Deck+.

GPS/S63-TE13 TD Earth Mother's Disciple, Priestess

This Level 0 Priestess character card allows players to control the top card of their deck, granting them to plan for future actions. In addition, it enables one to search for any 《Order》 character from the player's deck and add it to their hand. As most of the key cards in Goblin Slayer have the 《Order》 attribute, this is an easy inclusion into any deck.

Another neat card is this Level 3 Goblin Slayer character card that stops an opponent from playing "Backup" during the battle phase, preventing them from changing the outcome of the battle easily. On top of that, it can also deal an additional 2 potential damage to the opponent when it defeats an opponent's character in battle, vastly increasing the player's odds in closing out the game.

GBS/S63-TE07 TD Masked Figure's Name, Goblin Slayer

GBS/S63-TE08 TD Torch

Besides the Character cards, an Event Counter that is commonly found in top-performing decks for Japanese tournaments is Torch. The Counter ability allows players to make a move during their opponent's turn with minimal requirements, at low Level 1 with no cost! With this card, one can dig 4 cards deep into their deck to find an 《Order》 character that they need, without fear of shrinking their hand size.

An alternate Event with the same card name that allows a player to alter the position of their opponent's character on the field, can also be found in the Booster Pack.

Scientist of Black Sheen, Mathilda [V-EB10/006EN]
Cardfight!! Vanguard Extra Booster 10: The Mysterious Fortune

Over here, we have this card from the clan called Great Nature.

At first glance, one would think that the ability is not bad, as it can either restrict your opponent's options for guarding, or increase damage dealt to your opponent if it hits. However, together with the continuous ability of "Holy Great Sage of Black Shadows, Isabelle", this card becomes one of your options to finish your opponent off, as it will be an attacking unit that has both guard restrict and critical+1! Devastating, especially if you hit a front trigger as well.

Casual Theorist, Key

- Bushiroad Development Team

"In Charge of Fuyuki" Rin [FS/S64-E057 RR]
Fate/stay night (Heaven's Feel)

Depending on your board state, "In Charge of Fuyuki" Rin is a flexible card that can be played in both attack and defence while giving multiple options to deal with your opponent at an early stage of the game.

It brings synergy to decks that utilize strong Level 1 CX combos such as Righteous King of Knights, Saber and Strike Air, by allowing you to dig 4 cards deep into your deck to look for a (Master) or (Servant) to add to hand. Give this card a shot and see the wonders it can do for your gameplay!

Accel Major, Jon

Duel Sieger "Tempest Enforcer Re:B" [S-BT07/0015EN]
Ace Booster Pack Vol. 7 Perfected Time Ruler

Duel Sieger is back with all new abilities! Able to reduce the size of size 3 monsters on his left or right, Duel Sieger also gains additional power ups for each size 3 monster in your drop zone! Did I mention he has Quadruple Attack and Penetrate as well? Phew!
