Yuga clashes with Ranma in the Ace Climax Booster: Golden Garga and Violence Vanity!
Many of your favourite cards get new upgrades in these two boosters, and they're all so good, you won't know which to start with first!

Deity Gargantua Dragon

This is Garga in his best form we've seen so far! Following the first Garga we've seen, you can use this garga in all flags, however, if you use Deity Gargantua Dragon as your buddy, you can use all forms of Garga, even those in other worlds! Not just that, but he holds a fearsome ability as well, DG·EVO, allowing you to attack continuously non-stop!

Sentence of Curse

A new archetype, Curse Dragon, will be introduced in Golden Garga! Used by Light, this deck has a special win condition, thanks to Sentence of Curse! Put cards under your opponent's flag at the start of their turn, and once your opponent has 15 cards under his or her flag, you win! Several cards under this archetype accommodates in adding cards to this as well!

Black Dragon Knight, Geil

The Black Dragon Knight who brings about Judgement, Light's buddy, Geil, assists in achieving the special win condition! When Geil is destroyed, you can put one card under your opponent's flag and return Geil to your hand! Make use of this to add more and more cards under your opponent's flag to victory!

Curse Destruction

Get the chance to add more cards to victory! If there are any Geil cards among the top 2 cards of your deck, you can add 3 cards under your opponent's flag! Additionally, the cast cost is to destroy a curse dragon monster. That means, if you destroy Geil on your field, you can add up to 4 cards to your opponent's flag! this as well!

The clash between good and evil! Which side are you on?

Vile Demonic Deity Dragon, Vanity Epoch Destroyer

Ranma's buddy, Vanity Destroyer gains new power to the vilest form ever! One unique observation is it's call cost, which to call when a Lost World monster is put into your drop zone! The fight is not over even if you just managed to get rid of a lost world monster!

Venom Swamp

Violence Vanity has several new archetypes as well! And this is just one of the few, Darkvenom Dragon! The main card for this deck is this set spell, Venom Swamp! The special rule of this deck, is that you can keep any number of Venom Swamp in your deck! Yes, that means you can keep more than 4! Venom Swamp has an even more important skill, and that is force your opponent to drop cards from his deck!

Deathraider Orven

Worry not if you do not have any Venom Swamp in hand, for Deathraider Orven can assist in that endeavour! The moment Deathraider Orven enters the field, you can take all Venom Swamp from the top three cards of your deck! Deathraider Orven also allows you to destroy any <Darkvenom Dragon> on the field if there's a Venom Swamp spell on your field!

Venom Bind

The most troublesome counter spell has appeared ever (for your opponent that is)! Choose any card of your opponent's and that card's critical is reduced for each Venom Spell spell you have on the field! Use this on your opponent's hardest hitting monsters, and you won't even feel a thing!

pick of the month

Recklessness Dragon [V-EB03/029EN] English Edition Cardfight!! Vanguard Trial Deck 06: Naoki Ishida

Trial deck 06: Naoki Ishida is released this month, featuring one of my favourite clans—Narukami. Hence, I'd like to introduce a card from this trial deck: Recklessness Dragon.

It can bind a rear-guard on the opponent's front row; meanwhile, its second ability gives it additional 3000 power. With its own ability and other supporting units from Narukami, Recklessness Dragon can effortlessly meet this condition and reach 12000, perfect for attacking Protect and Accel vanguards without boosting, which also makes it an incredible unit to place on the Accel circle.

Standing Up Vanguard, Robin
- Cardfight!! Vanguard In-Charge

Sword Saint, Reinhard [RZ/S46-E007] Booster Pack Re:ZERO -Starting Life in Another World-

Wall of text, anyone?

Sword Saint, Reinhard is high-impossible to remove once he lands on the stage. Cards in your hand essentially become ammo to throw into his AUTO ability that deals damage to your opponent whenever he beats anyone in battle, and you can be sure that's going to happen a lot – 20,000 power, can't use Backups during his battle, and Great Performance work in tandem to ensure you'll always get to use this effect. You can even kick annoying characters to the Memory if you want to!

King of No Cancels, Matthew
- Weiß Schwarz In-Charge

Meteor Galaxy Exalt, Ultra Cosmoman [S-CBT01/0007EN] S Climax Booster Vol. 1: Golden Garga

Golden Garga and Violence Vanity are releasing soon and on top of everything that's been revealed, there's still so much left to explore! One such card is Ultra Cosmoman! Staying true to Cosmoman, you can only transform into Ultra Cosmoman while you are already transformed as Cosmoman.

Besides his powered-up stats, his abilities are more exciting. With 1 gauge, you can reduce any incoming damage by 5! And in the bottom left corner.....That's right! Ultra Cosmoman has Quadruple Attack! With this, your opponents will melt under Cosmoman's onslaught of attacks!

When did you start playing Cardfight!! Vanguard?

I started playing Cardfight Vanguard competitively back in 2014 the set which "Omega" Glendios came out.

What Clan do you play, and why?

I play mostly meta decks such as OTT and Neo Nectar. There is other strong deck right now such as Murakumo but I don't play it because it does not have any waifu material in it.

What is your favorite card, and why?

Sphere Magus because without her, I wouldn't be here

What would winning the World Finals mean to you?

Well, I came here to have fun. It doesn't matter if I win or lose. Getting a trip to Japan here playing in the world finals is already a great honour which is hard to achieve. If I win then its another great achievement.

When did you start playing Cardfight!! Vanguard?

I started playing Cardfight!! Vanguard in the year 2012 when gold paladin came out.

What Clan do you play, and why?

I played mostly Megacolony, Gold Paladin and Genesis. When I first started out building Spectral Duke, I was getting cards for Megacolony in the same booster, so I also made that a deck to use for self-practice. I grew fond of Megacolony. Since not many people were a big fan of Megacolony, I had to pick up the slack for them. I was especially happy when G-BT04 came out where Darkface came out, it is the same story of where I saw Fenrir and just pick up that clan.

What is your favorite card, and why?

Spectral Duke Dragon, he was my first vanguard when I started playing.

What would winning the World Finals mean to you?

I would be happy if I won Worlds, especially with the clan/deck I will use to win with.

When did you start playing Future Card Buddyfight?

2014. I always had my eye for the game since its release, but I began playing once I completed my first deck which was 'Skull Warriors' when 'Booster Set 2: Cyber Ninja Squad' released.

What Clan do you play, and why?

Dragon World. While there are a lot of other fun decks to play in different worlds, Dragon World triumphs over them for me because of their wider card pool and cards to choose from when creating your deck and sideboard.

What is your favorite card, and why?

The one and only English exclusive card <Green Dragon Knights "Song of Ancient Lands">. I really enjoyed playing this card in 2016 & 2017 in combination with <Blue Sky Knights, Systemic Dagger Dragon> as well as the variety of bounce (return to hand) spell cards Dragon World has access to. Everytime the deck casted one, you would gain a tremendous amount of life while at the same time still be able to replenish your hand.

What would winning the World Finals mean to you?

Australia for the longest time has had the longest streak of Runner-up finishes in World Finals crossing between different Bushiroad games, including my own finish in 2017 Worlds. Now finally having a win brings great joy and accomplishment not only to myself, but to every Australian cardfighter. Hopefully Australia will be able to win again next year.

Animere Championship: 4th place

When did you start playing Weiss Schwarz?

2015.

What Title do you play, and why?

Varied, I like to play a lot of different sets.

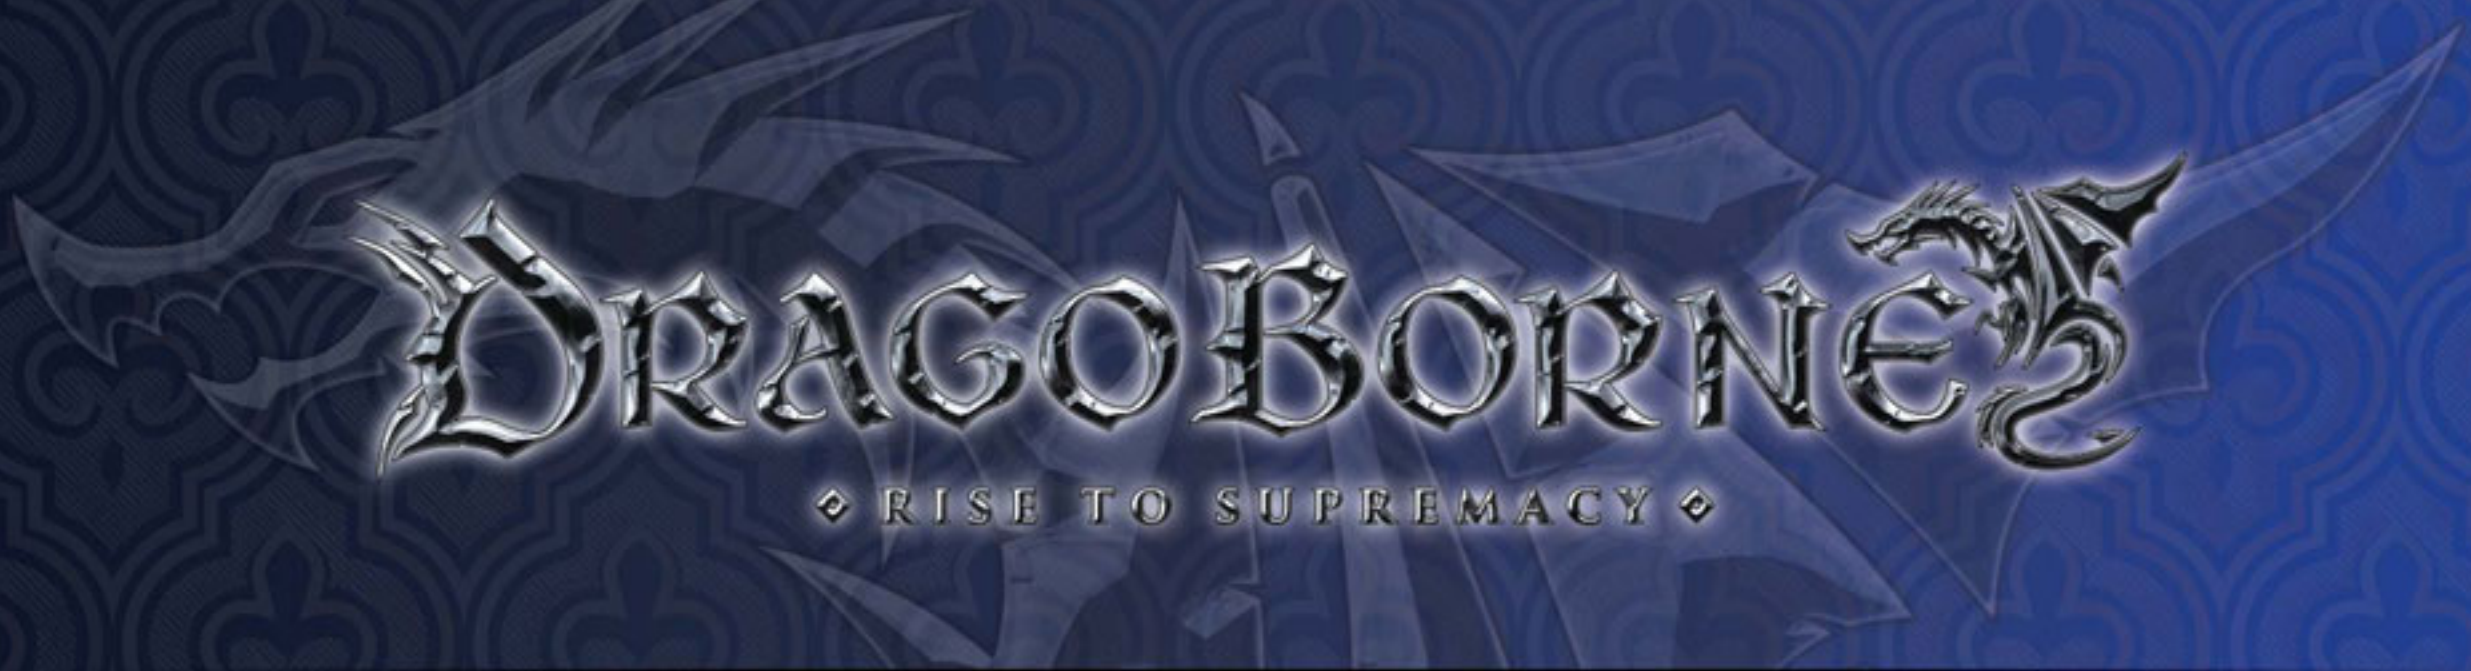

What is your favorite card, and why?

Used to be 'marbled red crab megumin' for sure, but 'chomp chomp megumin' is close to beating it.

What would winning the World Finals mean to you?

I'd need to keep practicing to defend my title then.

WORLD FINALS CHAMPION

Anthony Harden

When did you start playing Dragoborne?

I started playing Dragoborne during the Demo Deck testing in 2017.

What Colour do you play, and why?

Originally, I played a Blue, Green, Yellow because of my love for the defensive mechanics. Since then, I have built Green, Red, Yellow which has both defensive and offensive capabilities which escalate off of each other.

What is your favorite card, and why?

My favourite card is Voice of The Living World. The card's art is amazing and the effect to reduce the cost to play a creature makes it a staple in any Green deck.

What would winning the World Finals mean to you?

Winning the World Finals to me would mean all my hard work and studying of Dragoborne would have paid off. This World Finals allows me to send off Dragoborne with a bang and that's what kept me excited for World Finals.
