Time to slay some goblins on the Weiß Schwarz stage!

In the last issue, we featured several cards from the Trial Deck+ that are fundamental to the top-performing decks for this set. In this issue, we will be showcasing some neat cards that can be found in the Booster Pack.

For starters, check out this “Precise Battle Tactics, Goblin Slayer”!

This card gets a boost of +2000 in power when the player has two or more other 《Order》 characters on the playing field, and its CX combo grants card advantage by allowing players to retrieve a Torch event card from the waiting room or search for one from their deck.

Depending on the board state, one may search for one of the two different Torch cards available in this set, the Torch Event Counter that is exclusive to the Trial Deck+ and an alternate Torch Event that can be found in the Booster Pack.

Another formidable card is "Pure Aide, Priestess"! With a simple condition of having "True Bonds, Goblin Slayer" in the player's clock, this card can be called into play early at Level 2.

Besides an extra boost of +1500 power, the Auto ability gained from its CX Combo also reduces the soul of all the opponent's characters by 1, thereby reducing incoming damage and potentially keeping the player at Level 2.

The stoic, bloodstained warrior trudges onto the Weiß Schwarz stage!

Staff member Matt gets his hands dirty with yet another deck tech featuring Goblin Slayer! Much like in the series where the resourceful adventurer has many tricks up his sleeve, this deck has multiple useful one-ofs that it can easily search for depending on the situation. Talk about thematic!

Deck List

Character

Event

Climax

Deck Tech

The core engine of most Goblin Slayer decks is the Trial Deck+ exclusive event Torch. Apart from the card selection it provides, being a Counter means you could potentially use it to mitigate incoming damage (although this requires some guesswork on your part!). It also helps that you can use Precise Battle Tactics, Goblin Slayer's Climax Combo to search your deck for it, or retrieve a copy of it in your waiting room. Instead of going for the usual effect damage endgame, this deck attempts to mitigate damage at level 2 by using Standby to bring Enchanting Looks, Witch's second ability to bear, then maintaining a low damage count at level 3 with Merciful, Priestess. This card also doubles as a high power wall that's hard to overcome without investment on your opponent's part! Once they're close to level 4, close out the game with Masked Figure's Name, Goblin Slayer!

Key Cards

Points of Interest

An Ordinary Piece, Cow Girl is an all-star in this deck. Apart from doing what is printed, it lets you check for Climax cards before using Brainstorm, and also acts as a discard outlet if you drew the card you wanted to put into play with Standby.

《Gate》Scroll has a high cost and is conditional in its usage, but the payoff is huge! Because it is easily searchable (via Burdened by Fate, Goblin Slayer) and retrievable (via Strange Request, Witch), you don't have to invest more than one slot in your deck for it.

Key characters to bring to the field with Standby: Precise Battle Tactics, Goblin Slayer at level 0, Where the Two Belong, Cow Girl or Unyielding Stance, Goblin Slayer at level 1, and Enchanting Looks, Witch at level 2.

pick of the month

Aurora Star, Coral [V-EB11/002EN] Cardfight!! Vanguard Extra Booster 11: Crystal Melody

Get ready to be overwhelmed by Coral once again!

Apart from giving you card advantage through its second ability, picking up any other "Coral" via its ability gives it a hefty power boost and puts you at the halfway mark to getting its first ability online. There are cards in the same booster that provide pesky guard restrict abilities for Coral as well, making her passive critical boost (for all of your "Coral" units, by the way!) far more deadly!

Aurora Stan, Matt

Sure-Hit, High Elf Archer; Faith Entrusted to the Bow [GBS/S63-E006 R, GBS/S3-E026 CC] Goblin Slayer

Just like her fiery temper personality in the anime series, this "Sure-hit Strike, High Elf Archer" character card plays like an all-out offensive! From the Auto ability gained from its CX combo, all of your characters on the playing field get an additional +1 soul till the end of turn, thereby effectively increasing the number of potential damage dealt to your opponent during the attack phase.

If that is not enough, in the event that it is defeated in battle, it sends the battle opponent character to your opponent's stock if that character's level is higher than their current level. A neat way to remove your opponent's potentially strong characters from the playing field!

Sky's the Limit, Cheryl
- Bushiroad Marketing Team

Future Force, "DGX" [S-CBT03/0007EN] Ace Climax Booster Vol. 3 Ultimate Unite

Legend Dragon gets a boost in this upcoming climax booster too! More specifically, Alec gets Future Force! Wait, what? That's right! Now, Alec will be able to fight with his three buddies too!

With protection against destruction, leaving the field and nullifying card abilities, you can also stand all Legend Dragon monsters not only on your field, but also in your buddy zone! Did I mention Triple Attack as well? Wow!
