Re:ZERO

-Starting Life in Another World-

Memory Snow

In August, fans of the anime series, Re:ZERO -Starting Life in Another World-, can look forward to its return in Weiß Schwarz English Edition, with its first OVA, Memory Snow! Continuing the popularity of its first anime season, this booster pack features the protagonist, Subaru, alongside other popular characters such as Emilia, the twins, Ram and Rem, Puck and more. In addition, there are new characters such as Petra and other children from the village, Irlam.

This booster pack contains several cards that work in synergy with one another to generate handy effects that will give you a lift in your game!

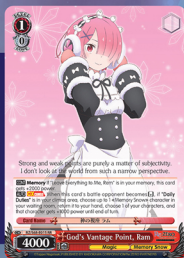

First up, it is our favorite demon maid at the Roswaal's mansion! By the effect of the AUTO ability of this Leave Everything to Me, Rem character card, both players cannot receive 1 damage or less dealt by the AUTO effects of their respective opponents' characters when it is placed into a player's memory.

With its ACT ability, you can dig up to 3 cards into your deck to search for a «Memory Snow» character to add to your hand.

On top of that, it is also one of the crucial cards in this product, as there are several cards that require at least 1 to 2 copies of it to be in a player's memory before certain effects can be performed.

For instance, if Leave Everything to Me, Rem is your memory, the God's Vantage Point, Ram character card gets a neat boost of +2000 in power through its CONT ability. When there are 2 or more copies of it in your memory, you can also play The World Reflected in Her Eyes, Emilia character card earlier in the game at Level 2.

Next, let's take a look at this Snow Bunny character card! Through its AUTO ability, you can search your deck for up to 1 «Memory Snow» character when it gets defeated in battle, by paying the cost.

And similar to Leave Everything to Me, Rem, there are also a number of cards that require 1 or more copies of it to be in your memory before certain effects can be performed.

If you have Snow Bunny in your memory, the Snow Bunny and Petra character card gets a considerable boost of +2500 in power. When «Memory Snow» Subaru attacks and you have 4 or more copies of the former in your memory, you can choose 1 of your characters on the field and that character gets a hefty boost of +3000 in power and +1 soul till the end of your turn.

To round up, check out her other twin, this Super Artist, Ram character card that works with 3 different cards to bring about various effects! For a start, if you have another Magnificent Subawaal Sculpture character card, it gets a neat boost of +2000 in power through its CONT ability.

With its AUTO ability, you can have Combination of Ideals, Rem returned to your hand from your waiting room which in turn, works with Magnificent Subawaal Sculpture to give you an additional chance of dealing 1 damage to your opponent when the damage dealt by the former is canceled, by paying the cost.

Finally, if you have Expectant Gazes in your climax area when its battle opponent is defeated, and you have 4 or more Memory Snow characters on the field, you can deal 3 additional damage to your opponent. At level 3, Super Artist, Ram works with other cards to become a potential game-finisher that brings you victory!

Mob Psycho 100

"You're the protagonist of your life."
— Reigen Arataka

Hey, Weiß Schwarz Meisters! In case you haven't heard, we announced our next upcoming English Original title at Anime Expo Lite earlier this month. Yes, it's Mob Psycho 100, a heartwarming tale of Shigeo Kageyama (aka Mob) in his journey to find his way of life without depending on his immense psychic powers, alongside the friends he makes along the way!

In this issue, we take our developer, ShihoP aside for a quick chat "behind the scenes" to see what goes into the thought process for developing an original Weiß Schwarz title as well as a sneak preview of what we can expect from this set.

Q. To start the ball rolling, could you share a little about what you do and in particular, your involvement in our next English Original title, Mob Psycho 100?

Hi, I am a developer for Weiß Schwarz English Edition. My work generally involves the localization of Weiß Schwarz titles from Japanese, however with the introduction of English Original titles, we are now able to design and develop titles outside of the ones available in the Japanese lineup. In the case of Mob Psycho 100, I am in charge of the direction of the set such as the choices of scenes for cards, climax, card flavors and so forth.

Q. What are some of the things that you look out for when developing a new title?

Each title will certainly have its own unique aspects, and they serve as the point of attraction. It can be anything: the world setting, the unique characters, the memorable animation, the picturesque backgrounds, so on and so forth. After identifying the unique aspects, I will try to incorporate those aspects into the cards accordingly. It is my wish that a player would be able to pick up a card from the set, recall a particular great scene from the anime and recall parts of what they like about the show.

Q. What are some of the highlights that players can expect from this set?

Mob Psycho 100 has such a large cast of great characters, and in line with the concept that Mob is well, supposed to function like a background (mob) character, I tried to incorporate as many of the side characters in as well. Another memorable and unique point of this series is the running explosion counter throughout the show, which was also included in the set.

Q. Do you have a favorite character and what can we look forward to when it comes to that character in the set?

Oaf, this is a tough one. All the characters have their own lovable aspects, but I believe the one that strikes a chord with me the most is Reigen. He's the only recurring "adult" in a show full of kids, yet sometimes the things that he does are downright childish and immature to the point that they're below the level of the actual children in the show, but here's the thing: no matter what the situation is, he gets by in life... somehow. He can waltz into a situation completely clueless about everything and even if he has no cards to play, he relies on his wit to analyze the situation and just wings it on the spot — often with amazing results. To represent that, Reigen in this set will have as many tricks up his sleeves, so do look forward to them!

Q. Do you have any memorable moments or favorite scenes in the anime and would we be seeing any of those in the set?

In case no one has watched Season 1 yet (go watch it, it's great), I'll try and avoid spoilers, but there is a very emotional climactic scene in the final episodes between Mob and his master, Reigen, that puts Mob between a rock and a hard place; a choice between standing up for the values that he believes in and being asked to do something that only he can do. Mob drives himself against the wall with this self-inflicted false dilemma, and Reigen introduces him to a route that is completely unexpected. It felt like seeing the light at the end of a tunnel, although the tunnel was originally created by tunnel-vision.

Apart from the spoiler, remember the many killer techniques that Reigen has scattered throughout the show?

Q. Anything else that we look forward to in this set?

Keep an eye out for the card No. 100.

Dark Dragon, Chainrancer Dragon[V-S505/005EN] Cardfight!! Vanguard Special Series 05 "Premium Collection 2020"

I don't know about you, but I think I'm in love with Dark Dragon, Chainrancer Dragon. Why, you ask? Well, for one, it lets me swing with G-unit level Power while being able to access powerful effects like the Phantom Blaster Dragon (V), or Illusionary Revenger, Mordred Phantom (V), which are some of my favourite cards in Vanguard! As if the pressure from those powerful V-series cards' abilities and Imaginary Gift are not enough, Chainrancer Dragon even gives them an accessible guard restriction, reducing the reliance on cards like Danger-lunge Dragon for the finishing push! If you have a Standard Shadow Paladin deck and want to get into Premium with it, this is definitely the dragon for you.

Rooting for Ranunculus, Matt - Bushiroad Marketing Team

Achieving Vindication, Shion[TSK/S70-E003] That Time I Got Reincarnated as a Slime

Like her character in the anime series, this Achieving Vindication, Shion character card resonates very well with her personality of giving her best in everything she does. At the same time, I also like it due to its high functionality. For a start, you can play it earlier in the game at level 2 when the conditions are met via its first CONT ability. If all your characters on the field are 《Demon Continent》, it gets a considerable boost of +2000 in power. In addition, you get 1 simultaneous heal through its AUTO ability, by discarding a card from your hand into the waiting room.

Sky's the Limit, Cheryl - Bushiroad Marketing Team

Sol Trilight, Amaterasu "Wisteria Dance" [S-SS01A-SP02/0005EN] Ace Special Series Alternative Vol. 1: Buddy Ragnarok

Miko's buddy, Amaterasu is back to shed her beautiful, powerful warmth onto us! Now, you can draw cards during each player's attack phase, and choose to gain either Power and gauge cards or Defense and life! To add onto that, the power and defense increases are spread to all Electrodeity on the field! Overall, it's a great card for Electrodeity and I can't wait to add this new Amaterasu into my Electrodeity deck!
